

Skill Development Roadmap

A practical framework for assessing, developing, and monitoring leadership growth through SEM-based Type III projects, real classroom and extracurricular leadership experiences, and reflection — all powered by Renzulli Learning.

THE CORE IDEA

Leadership is not a fixed trait — it is a set of skills students can build through practice, reflection, and authentic opportunities. Schools unlock that growth when they combine honest self-assessment, real responsibility, collaborative project work, and chances to lead in the classroom and beyond.

Use the Renzulli Leadership Assessment to gauge each student's confidence and self-perceived leadership potential.	Set growth goals in communication, teamwork, problem-solving, decision-making, planning, and helping others.	Use SEM-based Type III projects, group inquiry, and project-based learning that require students to lead, listen, and decide.	Encourage real leadership roles beyond the classroom: clubs, athletics, performing arts, service, and community projects.	Reassess, reflect, and document growth — using student work and self-reflection to show how confidence and skill have grown.
